Osaka - The Heart of Kansai

Osaka offers optimal sightseeing opportunities thanks to its proximity to the neighboring cities such as ancient capitals of Kyoto and Nara which are home to many World Heritage sites, the fashionable port city of Kobe, and Hiroshima, a symbolic city of global peace.

Osaka International Convention Center (OICC)

Opened in April 2000, Osaka International Convention Center is one of the world's foremost state-of-the-art convention facilities as well as a new symbol for the international city of Osaka.

Osaka is known as 2nd biggest city in Japan after Tokyo and the center of the Kansai region.

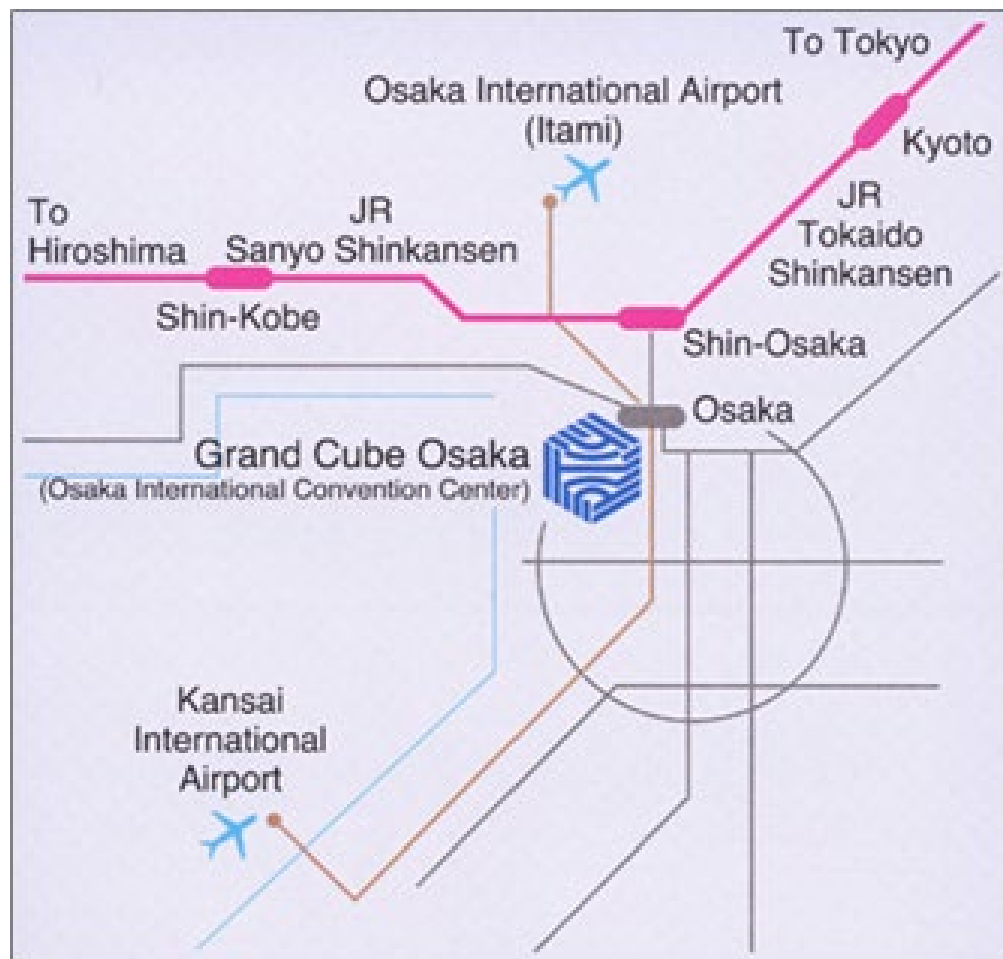

It consists of Main Hall (2,754 seats equipped with eight-language simultaneous interpretation equipment), Event Hall (multi-purpose hall of 2,600 square meters with no pillars), Conference Hall (500 seats), and 25 additional small to medium conference rooms (10 to 1,100 seats).

Free WIFI is available.

This convention center is based on the concept of Heart Building Law. The center has car spaces for people who use wheelchairs and the car parking fee is reduced for them. Wheelchairs are available for free of charge. Osaka International Convention Center is a guide dog friendly facility.

Access to the OICC

From Kansai International Airport (KIX)

- Approx. 55 min. to JR Osaka Station on the JR Line
- Approx. 60 min. to JR Osaka Station

From Osaka International Airport (Itami Airport)

- Approx. 30 min. to JR Osaka Station by airport limousine
